

BRIEFING AND LAUNCH OF THE 2019 ANNUAL PRESIDENT'S REPORTING ON NATIONAL VALUES AND PRINCIPLES OF GOVERNANCE

Article 132 (1) (c) (i), (ii), (iii) and Article 240 (7) of the Constitution requires H.E the President to annually report in an address to the nation on all measures taken and progress achieved in the realisation of national values and principles of governance referred to in Article 10 and submit a report to the National Assembly on the progress made in fulfilling the international obligations of the Republic and to Parliament on the state of the security of Kenya.

The Annual President's Report on all measures taken and progress achieved in the realization of national values and principles of governance provides an opportunity for H.E the President and his Government to appraise the nation on programmes, projects and activities undertaken in various sectors for socio-economic and political development and how they contribute to the realization of national values and principles of governance.

The preparation of the 7th Annual President's Report on all measures taken and progress achieved in the realization of national values and principles of governance, 2019 will commence with a briefing meeting at the Kenya Institute of Curriculum Development (KICD) Ngara on Wednesday 4th December, 2019 starting 8.00 am to 1pm. The meeting will bring together all Focal Point and contact persons representing Ministries, Counties, Departments and Agencies (MCDAs).

The purpose of this letter therefore is to invite you to attend the briefing and official launch of the 2019 Annual President's reporting process.
